

I am against the broadband transmission over powerlines. This will produce huge amount of noise over a broad spectrum. This will cause huge amounts of interference to many amateur stations which provide emergency communications in times of disaster and also provide many public services. Roy Bonvillian Jr.